ORDER

Plaintiff, Intervenor, and Defendants, by their attorneys, appeared before the Court, the Honorable Daniel J. Bissett presiding, on September 20, 2017 to receive the Court's oral ruling. Based on the arguments of counsel, all pleadings of records, and reasons stated on the record, it is hereby ORDERED:

1. Plaintiff's motion is denied.
2. The records shall remain in redacted form, except the following redactions should be eliminated:

(a) All general references to “accounting,” the “accounting department” or “accounting major”;

(b) General references to “CPA” and “CPA exam”; and

(c) General reference to what Hagen told students.

3. The authority shall not provide access to the subject records until after any appeal is decided, until the period for appealing or petitioning for review expires, until a petition for review is denied, or until the authority receives written notice from the record subject that an appeal or petition for review will not be filed, whichever occurs first.

This Order is final for purpose of appeal.

Dated this 28th day of September, 2017

BY THE COURT:
